

David Thomasson

Migrating to Australia from the UK in 2008, Dave has held senior IT positions in banking and the energy sector and is currently employed as Lead, Operation and Orchestration Manager at Synergy.

His two daughters attended St Brigid's College, with his eldest daughter graduating in 2013, and his youngest, graduating in 2019. Both girls were presented with many Awards during their time at the College, including the prestigious Principal's Award.

Dave has served as a former President of the College's Parent Forum.

In his spare time, he enjoys playing and watching sport and is an avid supporter of Bolton Wanderers who currently play their soccer in the second tier in England.