

Gerard Tonks

Gerard Tonks is a retired Chartered Accountant and Company Secretary who worked in professional accountancy practices in Perth, London, Papua New Guinea (for three years), and his own practice in Kalgoorlie.

Gerard also worked in commerce in companies in the mining industry in Kalgoorlie and in Perth.

Gerard has lectured in accounting and business at the University of Notre Dame Australia, Fremantle Campus, and at Curtin University's School of Mines in Kalgoorlie.

Gerard has held the position of WA Provincial President of the Catenian Association and led the way in establishing the annual Catenian sponsored, 'Speak for Faith' Public Speaking Competition in WA Catholic Secondary Colleges.

His alma maters are Aquinas College and Curtin University. His daughter, Emily, was a graduate of St Brigid's College in 1999.

Gerard is an active member the Holy Family Parish in Kalamunda, having served in many ministries over the years.